QUARTERLY
NEWSLETTER
JANUARY- MARCH 2019

The annual Conference of the IAPC was held this year in Kochi from 8th to 10th February 2019. This year the theme of the conference was "Voices in palliative care; ensuring quality, creating solutions".

Marking the festival of colours, Karunashraya celebrated Holi on 23rd March 2019. On this joyous celebration, organic colours were used and 40 children (age group 6-8 years) and guests, together with staff of Karunashraya, had a very happy time. Music and food stalls were also put up. In all, we had 274 guests. Patients also had their share of fun and frolic. A substantial amount of money was raised on the occasion.

RUNNING FOR A CAUSE

Dr. Hari Kumar Sholinghur participated in 12 marathons across the globe including countries like UK & Spain with the noble purpose of raising fund for Karunashraya.

SNEHDHARA FOUNDATION

Four volunteers of "Snehdhara Foundation" visited us on March 30th, 2019, for their project work which involved creating canvas and patterns with flowers & Rangoli designs. Nursing staff, other care givers and counseling staff of Karunashraya participated. The inmates also took keen interest in these activities.

GLOBAL RUN FOR CANCER 2019

"Globalwings Fitness" organized "The Run for Cancer Awareness" on the 24th February 2019, to bring hope to cancer patients, to honour survivors, and to increase awareness about reducing cancer risks. The proceeds of this event were gifted to Karunashraya.

COMPOST PLANT

AT&T has set up a composting pit within the premises of Karunashraya. This plant uses leaf litter and other such debris to generate compost that AT&T intends to sell to their employee for generating money for Karunashraya. Their volunteers visit Karunashraya at regular intervals for this composting activity.

WORLD CANCER DAY 2019

Sixty students from New Horizon College, Bengaluru, organized music and dance extravaganza on the 4th February, 2019, which was greatly enjoyed by patients and staff alike. Another team of volunteers visited Karunashraya bringing along their premium motor bikes later in the evening. The patients and staff were all the more excited getting their very own share of rides on these unique bikes.

RENOVATION OF THE PRAYER ROOM

INTEL Foundation has generously funded for the renovation of the prayer room. The room is now newly air conditioned alongside the beautiful murals and paintings, seating, and a body preserver.
